THE PEOPLE ARE THE RULERS. Text of Ex-Speaker Reed's Remarks at Boston.

The third annual dinner of the Republi can Club of Massachusetts was held in Music Hall, Boston, last evening. The first appearance of ex-Speaker Reed in New England during the campaign and the announcement that Congressman Dalzell of Pennsylvania was to speak, and also that all the prominent republican state candi-

ONLY A WATCH.

But Its Manufacture Requires the Exercise of Great Skill.

From the Locomotive Engineer. Open your watch and look at the little wheels, springs and screws, each an indispensable part of the whole wonderful machine. Notice the busy little balance wheel as it flies to and fro unceasingly, day and night, year in and year out. This wonderful little machine is the result of hundreds of years of study and experiment. The watch carried by the average man is composed of ninety-eight pieces and its manufacture embraces more than two thousand distinct and separate operations. Some of the smallest screws are so minute that the unaided eye cannot distinguish them from steel filings or specks of dirt. Under a powerful magnifying glass perfect screw is revealed. The slit in the head is 2-1,000 of an inch wide. It takes 308,000 of these screws to weigh a pound and a pound is worth $1,585. The hairspring is a strip of the finest steel, about 9 1-2 inches long and 1-100 inch wide and 27-10,000 inch thick. It is coiled up in spiral form and finely tempered.

The process of tempering these springs was long held a secret by the few fortunate ones possessing it, and even now is not generally known. Their manufacture requires great skill and care. The strip is gauge! to 20-1,000 of an inch, but no measuring instrument has yet been devised capable of fine enough gauging to determine gauge! to 20-1,000 of an inch, but no measuring instrument has yet been devised capable of fine enough gauging to determine beforehand by the size of the strip what the strength of the finished spring will be. A 1-20,000 part of an inch difference in the running of the watch of about six minutes per hour.

The value of these springs when finished and placed in watches is enormous in pro-

The value of these springs when nnished and placed in watches is enormous in proportion to the material from which they are made. A comparison will give a good idea. A ton of steel made up into hair springs when in watches is worth more than twelve and one-half times the value of the same weight in gold. Hair spring wire weighs one-twentieth of a grain to of the same weight in gold. Hair spring wire weighs one-twentieth of a grain to the inch. One mile of wire weighs less than half a pound.

The balance gives five vibrations every The balance gives five vibrations every second, 309 every minute, 18,000 every hour, 432,000 every day and 157,680,000 a year. At each vibration it rotates about one and one-fourth times, which makes 137,100,000 every year. In order that we may better understand the stupendous amount of labor performed by those tiny works let us make few comparisons a few comparisons.

Take, for instance, a locomotive with six-foot driving wheels. Let its wheels be run until they have given the same number of revolutions that a watch does in one year and they will have covered a distance equal to twenty-eight complete circuits of the earth. All this a watch does without other attention than winding once every twenty-four hours.

Shooting Affray Followed by a Desperate Suicide. BOSTON, Oct. 26.-In an attic tenement on Billerica street last night a shooting affray occurred which resulted in the death of one man and the wounding of two others. Some talk ensued about property matters, when Warsofsky suddenly jumped up, drew a revolver and commenced firing wildly about the rocm. Glass received a bullet in the right wrist and Martelson was shot in the neck. Warsofsky then shot himself in the left breast and jumped through a window sash falling four stories to the pavement beneath. neath When found he was dead. In one of his pockets was found a letter directed to Glass in which Warsofsky spoke of his business troubles and said that he had decided to end his life. He wrote affectionately of his mother and asked that certain of his effects be sent to 139 Monroe street, New York, where it is supposed his mother resides. Glass and Martelson are not badly injured.

FIGHTING THE PRIZE FIGHTERS. latthews of Indiana Dete

in His Opposition. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 26.-Gov. Matthews has received a communication from Fishers Station, where the brutal Evans-Johnson fight took place yesterday morning, asking if prosecution was pos sible. The governor replied that it was and urged the owners to carry the affair into the courts. The governor having been notified that a new athletic club was organizing in northern Indiana has requested the secretary of state not to incorporate it until it could be learned if the state can refuse legal life to such an organization. The question will have to be determined in the courts. CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 26.—In the trial of the persons who participated in the "Chi-cago unknown" vs. "Speedy" Taylor prize fight, held in an old shed near this city sevnight, neid in an old shed near this city several weeks ago, George Treesse, who acted as referee, was yesterday found guilty and sntenced to ninety days in the county jail and a fine of $25 was imposed on him.

STILL TALKING FIGHT.

Mitchell Wants a Contest With a Limited Number of Spectators. A meeting which was to be held yesterday in New York between Charles Mitchell, champion heavy-weight boxer of England, and William A. Brady, James J. Corbett's manager, was postponed owing to the sudden illness of Mrs. Brady. Mitchell has agreed to wait several days more.

has agreed to wait several days more.

In an interview with a United Press reresentative Mitchell said he felt satisfied that if the fight could not take place in the state of New York it could not in any other state; that his object in coming to this country was to fight Corbett, and he has now reduced his weight from 227 to 194 pounds, although he has not yet gone into what might be called active training. Mitchell is in fairly good shape, although he has done no training further than to run from fifteen to twenty miles a day.

In a conversation with a few friends Mitchell said:

"About the only plausible proposition that I can make to Mr. Brady and Mr. Corbett, providing no purses are in sight, is that we fight for the stake of $10,000 a side, winner to take all, each side to have from five to ten men."

It is very probable that the Olympic Club of New Orleans will make some effort to get the Corbett-Mitchell battle should the two men decide to contest in that city. The contest committee of the club met last night in their club rooms for the purpose of studying the exact situation. The review of the matter is that 200,000 out of 250,000 in of the matter is that 200,000 out of 250,000 in that city are anxious to have the fight take place there, but should they find too strong an opposition they probably will leave the contest alone. The committee that discussed the matter thoroughly believe that the public opinion will not attempt to stop the battle. Both of the mentage expressed to the club, that if Normalizations are suppressed to the club, the suppressed to the suppressed to the club, the suppressed to have expressed to the club that if New York will not furnish the battle ground the New Orleans club will have the battle. The club will not offer a large purse for the men, but will make a bid of about $20,000. None of the members of the committee would speak on the proposed plans, but they acknowledge that they will pull the international contest off with the aid of the police.

who succeeded in signing both Mitchell and Corbett, met the former last night and informed him that the authorities of Kings county had notified the club officials that the fight could not take place at Coney Island. He added that the club would recompense him and Corbett for the time lost in training. Mitchell was greatly disap-pointed over the failure of the club to pull the fight off, and he intends to start for England in a few days. A Busy Scribe.

A Majority of Nine Counted on in the Senate.

How the Vote is Divided Among Political Parties-Senators Who Are Absent-How Individuals Will Vote.

There has not been a time before now during the fight on the silver question in the Senate when one could, with any certainty, make an estimate of the final vote for and against repeal. By this time, however, the Senators have taken public attitude on one side or the other, and a calculation as to how they will line up on the last struggle may be made with safety. Should there be no defections from either side the majority for repeal on the straight question will be about nine. It may be eight or ten, yet nine is the figure that is generally accepted. Counting all Senators, the repeal vote is made up of twenty-two democrats and twenty-five republicans, while the negative strength will be composed of twenty-two democrats, thirteen republicans and three populists, making forty-seven for repeal and thirty-eight against. But this list includes several absentees, seven in all, and so the final vote is not likely to be quite so large. Of these, five are for repeal, namely, Senators Allison, Chandler, Hale, Morrill and Wilson, and two are pronounced silver men, Mitchell of Oregon and White of California. Presuming that the silver absentees will be paired with two repeal Senators not in their seats-though this is not certain-there will be but five votes to be taken from the total estimate of each side. Thus the tally should

The following-named Senators are booked for votes for repeal: Democrats, Brice, Caffery, Camden, Faulkner, Gibson, Gordon, Gorman, Gray, Hill, Hunton, Lindsay, McPherson, Mills, Mitchell (Wis.), Murphy, Palmer, Ransom, Smith, Turpie, Vilas, Voorhees, White (La.)—22.

Republicans, Aldrich, Allison, Carey, Chandler, Cullom, Davis, Dixon, Dolph, Frye, Gallinger, Hale, Hawley, Higgins, Hoar, Lodge, McMillan, Manderson, Morrill, Platt, Proctor, Quay, Sherman, Stockbridge, Washburn and Wilson—25.

GEORGETOWN AGAIN WINS. But the Y .M. C. A. Team Put Up a Good Game.

The best foot ball game of the season was played yesterday afternoon at National Park between the Y. M. C. A. and Georgetown College. It was the second game between these two rivals this fall, and, as was the case with the first, victory perched lightly upon the banners of the college boys This game, however, was much closer and more exciting than the first, and the score by which it was won-16 to 8 shows how sharp the battle was.

Details of the Game. The Georgetown team was rather weak in defensive work, and the presence of several subs on the team did not improve matters. There were five of the regular eleven absent, and the substitutes did not add any strength. The Y. M. C. A. bucked the center repeatedly with great success, and for a time had the collegians on the run. The Y. M. C. A. lacked team work, but in individual plays showed to better advanbefore play stopped on account of dark-ness Harder was injured and forced to with-draw. Hooker took his place.

The first scoring was done by Georgetown The first scoring was done by Georgetown. After some sharp playing Carmody gained five yards on a double pass, and Comerford followed with a similar gain. Craig then carried the ball over the line for a touch down, and Carmody kicked goal. On the line up Johnson gained ten yards on the flying wedge. Davidson fumbled, but Y. M. C. A. still held the ball. Repeated buckings of the Georgetown center advanced the play to within fifteen yards of Georgetown's goal and Harder carried the ball over for a touch down. Leet failed to kick goal.

In the second half there was a general improvement in the tackling of both teams. The first had closed with the score 16 to 4 in favor of Georgetown, but in the second Leet made a touch down for the Y. M. C. A.'s, bringing their end up to 8. The score stood at 16 to 8, with the ball in Y. M. C. A. territory, when the game was called on

The Police Court Will Probably Get No Storm Doors.

THEY MUST FREEZE.

When the cold weather sets in and the wintry winds play havoc about the street corners Judge Kimball anticipates that some of the Police Court employes will have to fight against a game of "freeze out." Last winter's experience was enough for the judge, and before the beginning of the first fiscal year he impressed upon the officials connected with the office of Building Inspector Entwisle the absolute necessity for the construction of storm doors. There were other improvements needed, but the judge thought that this was necessary, in order to protect the health and comfort of persons about the court. This was one of the last things the judge mentioned before he went away on his summe vacation, and much to his surprise when he returned he discovered that no storm doors had been put about the building.

Then he directed to the building inspector a letter making inquiries about the matter, but no response was received, and then the judge sent a letter to the Commissioners asking for a statement of the appropriation. In response to this the judge received the following, and today he turned it over to Deputy Clerk Harper, who will make a report upon the items stated The letter from the building inspector reads:

THE NEW YORK EQUITABLE LIFE. ASSURANCE ASSOCIATION—the strongest and safest monetary institution in America—offers the best investment the young man could possibly make, for the following reasons:—First: Because the 'rate' charged to insure a young life is very small, and it never grows larger. Third: Because, should he die at any time, those depending upon him would be left comfortably provided for.
